

Ip Transit

CSquared's IP Transit solution connects West Africa to Europe through the Equiano subsea cable, our service offers clients carrier-grade IP connectivity to global internet content.

Best fit for cloud providers, ISPs and MONs and other carriers looking for:

- Connection to a high quality and efficient network that connects you to markets in west Africa, Europe and beyond
- Uncontended bandwidth
- Ethernet capacities up to and beyond 100Gbps

Features:

- Low latency
- Simplified allocation of cable capacity
- Automated ordering process
- Simplified billing process
- Scalable Solutions
- Proactive service monitoring
- 24/7 365 NOC services

Benefits:

1. Global Connectivity

With CSquared's IP Transit, you can easily connect to the global internet and seamlessly engage or access regional and international organizations

2. Scalable activation

Our IP Transit allows you to quickly scale your bandwidth and have faster connectivity

3. Reliability

Connectivity on West africa's newest submarine cable Google Equiano

4. Support

Our team is fully equipped to provide you with a 24h, 365 days support service

Support

CSquared has technical specialists on the ground who are equipped to walk you through our products and advise on the best product fit for your business.

Contact us

For more information on our dark fiber solutions, visit <http://www.csquared.com/iptransit> or leave your details on our website and someone from our team will reach out and support you on your connection journey.